CLASS PROJECTS

What is your child creating for Auction?

Our Starfish class is incorporating a multi-picture framed collage of the students onto a hanging shelf. The kids have designed their own Quest logos, which have been transferred onto items that will be hanging from hooks on the shelf. A practical yet creative work of art for one lucky winner's home!

The 7th graders are making a contemporary piece of wall art made up of mosaic wood panels and shelves, which the students have personalized. Use the shelves to hold your child's projects and awards from their years at Quest!

For The Love of Puzzles... Mrs. Tovar's Sea Turtles are puzzle making pros! There's no better way to remember their time in kindergarten than with their 48-piece custom puzzle. It features the adorable smiling faces of each Sea Turtle student. This keepsake will bring back many memories of their magical year, piece by piece.

SPOT AUCTION SURPRISE

For many years, auction goers have been made aware of the special project that Quest has designated as its Spotlight Moment prior to auction night. Last year, we brought back the ELEMENT OF SURPRISE! We will continue with this new tradition this year.

While we can confirm that there will be a Spotlight Moment during the evening, we will not unveil what the special project is until you arrive at The Stonegate. For now, we will only say that you are sure to be inspired and excited by what we have in store. Remember, funds raised during a Spotlight Moment are designated specifically for that project and are not added into the general operating budget for the school. And while we won't spill the beans just yet, we assure you that your children and their teachers will benefit greatly from what we have planned!

We are looking forward to the big reveal on March 14th!

YOU CAN GET A FREE LUNCH!

The Night of All Knights actually begins at 8:30 am, Friday March 13. We will begin loading the truck and cars for the caravan to The Stonegate.

Saturday, March 14 at 8:00 am, we begin transforming the ballroom for our Gala. Volunteers set up each section of the Auction in an all-day affair.

Whether you can help out for an hour or a day, Friday or Saturday, we'd love to have you! Those who are working during the lunch hour on Saturday (11:30ish) will get a FREE LUNCH!
